Americans for Prosperity Applauds U.S. Senate Candidate Daniel Bongino -Signs No Climate Tax Pledge-

ANNAPOLIS—The Maryland chapter of the free market grassroots group Americans for Prosperity (AFP-MD) today applauded U.S. Senate Candidate Daniel Bongino for signing the group's "No Climate Tax Pledge." Bongino joins more than 530 bipartisan lawmakers and candidates on the federal, state and local levels pledging to "oppose legislation relating to climate change that includes a net increase in government revenue."

"The one thing elected officials should be able to agree on is that global warming shouldn't be used as an excuse to hike taxes on citizens and businesses," said AFP-MD State Director Charles Lollar. "We encourage all of Maryland's elected officials and candidates for elected office to sign the pledge."

Maryland signers include: U.S. Representatives Andy Harris and Roscoe Bartlett; State Senator Norman Stone; and State Representatives Michael Hough, Rick Impallaria, Ron George, Don Dwyer Jr., Nicholas R. Kipke and Steven R. Schuh.

"Using the guise of climate change to transfer dollars from hard-working citizens to bureaucratic big government is unacceptable," said Lollar. "Regardless of their stance on global warming, this should be common ground for all of our elected officials at all levels of government."

The pledge is available online at www.NoClimateTax.com. AFP does not endorse candidates. All elected officials and candidates are encouraged to sign the pledge and go on the record in opposition to using the climate change issue to increase taxes and grow the size of government.
