Americans for Prosperity Applauds New York U.S. House Candidate Matt Doheny

-Signs No Climate Tax Pledge-

WASHINGTON, D.C.—The free market grassroots group Americans for Prosperity (AFP) today applauded New York U.S. House candidate Matt Doheny (23rd District) for signing the group’s “No Climate Tax Pledge.” Doheny joins more than 560 bipartisan lawmakers and candidates on the federal, state and local levels pledging to “oppose legislation relating to climate change that includes a net increase in government revenue.”

“The one thing elected officials should agree on is that global warming shouldn’t be used as an excuse to hike taxes on citizens and businesses,” said AFP Vice President for Policy Phil Kerpen. “We encourage all of New York’s elected officials and candidates for elected office to sign the pledge.”

New York signers include: U.S. Representatives Michael Grimm, Nan Hayworth, Chris Gibson, Ann Marie Buerkle, and Tom Reed; and State Senators Owen Johnson, Greg Ball and Pat Gallivan.

“Using the guise of climate change to transfer dollars from hard-working citizens to bureaucratic big government is unacceptable,” said Kerpen. “Regardless of their stance on global warming, this should be common ground for all of our elected officials at all levels of government.”

The pledge is available online at www.NoClimateTax.com. AFP does not endorse candidates. All elected officials and candidates are encouraged to sign the pledge and go on the record in opposition to using the climate change issue to increase taxes and grow the size of government.
