Cindy, you are a true and certifiable idiot for your views. You hate mongering and one-sided views will keep this country fighting amongst its people for a long time. Why don't you leave the president alone for a change. Let the children be excited to hear him speak, not afraid of what he might "brainwash" them to do. I dare say that if your man Bush had done the same thing, you would have made it sound like a grand idea. Please halt this propaganda and stop e-mailing this trash to me.
