Americans for Prosperity Applauds U.S. House Candidate John Stahl

-Signs No Climate Tax Pledge-

CAMARILLO—The California chapter of the free market grassroots group Americans for Prosperity (AFP-CA) today applauded U.S. House candidate John Stahl (50th District) for signing the group’s “No Climate Tax Pledge.” Stahl joins more than 530 bipartisan lawmakers and candidates on the federal, state and local levels pledging to “oppose legislation relating to climate change that includes a net increase in government revenue.”

“The one thing elected officials should be able to agree on is that global warming shouldn’t be used as an excuse to hike taxes on citizens and businesses,” said AFP-CA State Director David Spady. “We encourage all of California elected officials and candidates for elected office to sign the pledge.”

California signers include: U.S. Representatives Kevin McCarthy, Wally Herger, Gary Miller, Tom McClintock, Jeff Denham and John Campbell; and State Senators Doug LaMalfa, Tony Strickland and Bob Huff.

“Using the guise of climate change to transfer dollars from hard-working citizens to bureaucratic big government is unacceptable,” said Spady. “Regardless of their stance on global warming, this should be common ground for all of our elected officials at all levels of government.”

The pledge is available online at www.NoClimateTax.com. AFP does not endorse candidates. All elected officials and candidates are encouraged to sign the pledge and go on the record in opposition to using the climate change issue to increase taxes and grow the size of government.
