More info: “As your state legislators came back into session January 11th, it is time for concerned citizens to learn how to best support those who represent us and are constitutionally inclined. We’ll lay out what we see, what we hope can happen and how you can participate. Secondly, we have invited all candidates who are registered with the Secretary of State for the position of Superintendent of Public Instruction to attend a discussion panel. We will be laying an understanding as to what the founding fathers intended for public education and we’ll see how our current education model stacks up against the ideal. Panelists invited include: Matt Ladner, Goldwater Institute; Margaret Dugan (R), Candidate; Jason Williams (D), Candidate; Beverley Ducey, Principal, Valley Classical Christian Schools; Diane Douglas, Governing Board Member, Peoria School District (Ret).

More Info: DETAILS COMING SOON. We will post local April 15 tea parties soon, but we are encouraging everyone north of the Gila River to come down to Phoenix, to make a stand together, and be counted on Tax Day 2010. Those south of the Gila are requested to come to Tucson in the morning for the big Tucson Tea Party event there. If you want to make a day of it, go to Tucson first, and then head up to the state capitol for the evening event.
